Course Work

Read the Syllabus Document in the Content tab.

Assessment

Homework (30%) + Final Project (30%) + Final Exam (30%) + Quizzes (10%)

Late Policy

For all of the assignments, you are granted a total of 5 late days. Until you exhaust these, you will not be deducted points for late submission.

Please note that these are applicable only to assignments and cannot be applied to quizzes and projects.

If, for unforeseen circumstances, you believe you won't be able to submit your work in time beyond this, do email us before the deadline in order to request a few-day extension. Granting such an extension is not guaranteed and it's subject to our judgment, which varies on a per-case basis.

People

Instructors

Dr. Zehra Sura < ss20018@nyu.edu >

Dr. Parijat Dube < pd2216@nyu.edu >

Course Assistants (CA)

1. Dhanesh Baalaji Srinivasan < ds7636@nyu.edu >
2. Divya Agarwal < da3257@nyu.edu >
3. Yugesh Panta < yp2651@nyu.edu >

Collaboration policy

In this course, collaboration is encouraged but all the work that you submit must be your own. That is, the writing and code must be your own. To avoid plagiarism, you shouldn't be looking at someone else's solution before or while you write down your own. If someone is caught by the graders, there will not be any second chances given, and the student will be directly reported to the Academic Integrity office. Consequences may include failure in the course, suspension, or expulsion from the University.

Office hours

Office Hours:

Dhanesh Baalaji Srinivasan: Thursday, 3:00 - 4:00 PM,

There might be changes to the schedule in some weeks, so please use the links under the Zoom tab in Brightspace to remain up-to-date.

If nobody comes to the office hour within the first 15 minutes, unless you let us know you're planning to come late (email the CA), the office hour will be called off.

You can also find us on Campuswire. Your questions are likely to be others' questions as well.

Communication

All communication should happen through Campuswire. We will not respond to emails unless we tell you so. Throughout the class, please feel free to ask any questions or raise any concerns on Campuswire, in public chat, or privately with any of us.

Questions related to the assignment will not be answered one day before the submission to promote starting the assignments early.
